11/30/71 - Holland McCombs - Day story on life not impossible. Work through David Chandler + with a head summary that he can use to "sell" through all the channels where there are about 200 stories presented each week. Do not make explicit the angle of society functioning but ~~let~~ let it be implicit, let the reader get it. Footnote would be a separate story & if it chokes out a hell of a story. Cogency of analysis important because nobody who will look at it has enough time. Thus it must also be terse.
